

Alfred Music Flex Series

Alfred Music Flex Series contains original compositions, arrangements, and rescored best-sellers to serve the needs of programs with incomplete instrumentation.

Alfred Music Flex Series can be used with full band, string orchestra, a mix of band instruments and string instruments, woodwind and percussion, brass and percussion, chamber ensembles (mixed instrumentation), and for most like-instrument ensembles (ex. Flute quintet or quartet).

The series will be available on September 1st.

All Alfred Music Flex Series compositions are also available in original instrumentation.

The Flex Series is written in either 4-part (for lower grade levels) or 5-part (for upper grade levels) format.

The Alfred Music Flex Series is flexible for ANY combination of instruments – All instruments (except tuba) can play any part (some parts will be available as a free download).

There has been an effort to make all parts interesting.

The Alfred Music Flex Series contains varied repertoire, varied styles (concert/contest, holiday, pop, etc.) and varied grade level (Grade .5 - 3).

Teacher Map

The teacher map will allow teachers a way to document who they assign to which part. Included in the teacher map are flexible options, suggested instrumentation, and teacher part assignment spaces. When the teacher map is lined up with the left score page, the teacher assignments will generally line up with the 4 or 5 parts in the score, so it is easy to refer to which player is assigned to each part.

Supplemental parts

Not all parts will be available in the printed pack. Supplemental parts will be available for download at www.alfred.com/worldparts or www.alfred.com/supplementalparts. (After Sept 1)
